

Assessment for learning

What is the purpose of Assessment for learning?

The purpose of Assessment for learning is to:

- Provide insight into pupils' learning for both pupils and teachers
- Promote success for all
- Enable continuous reflection on what pupils know now and what they need to know next (feedback and feed forward)
- Measure what is valued
- Promote immediate intervention and link judgements to learning intentions
- Raise standards by taking pupils to the 'edges of possibility'

Implications for teaching

The teacher will:

- Provide continuous oral and written feedback which identifies strengths and the next step for improvement
- Promote pupil involvement in self-assessment
- Act on insights gained to inform personal targets
- Plan against what children know/can do/understand
- Make standards and objectives explicit to pupils
- Promote inclusion by attending to all pupils' learning needs, particularly for pupils who are at risk of underachievement
- Engage pupils in rich questioning
- Build in time for focused observation of teacher-directed and child-initiated activity

Impact on learning and the learner

The pupil will:

- Know what to do to improve
- Know what standards are required
- Know what has been achieved against known success criteria and what to do next
- Gain confidence, motivation and self-esteem as a learner
- Improve own self-evaluation skills
- Make progress
